NEW CARLISLE MAN TAKES 21 BATHS

He Was Treated by Four Different Doctors and Took 21 Baths at Benton Harbor Without Obtaining Relief—Under Proper Treatment He Gains 60 Pounds and Makes Complete Recovery—Mr. J. M. Whorton, a Baker of New Carlisle, Ind., Tells the Public of the Remarkable Manner in Which He Was Cured.

To The Public:

About Dec. 11th, 1911, I was taken sick with what I supposed to be an attack of rheumatism. My condition grew steadily worse, and I called four different doctors to wait upon me at different times. They all told me I was suffering from rheumatism, but failed to give me any relief. I then went to Benton Harbor, Mich., where I took a course of 21 baths, with no beneficial result. I became very weak and nervous, had no appetite, suffered with headache, loss of sleep, and excruciating pains all over my body. My feet were swollen and I could not wear my shoes. I lost weight rapidly, going down in flesh until my weight reached 127 pounds. I became so helpless that I could not feed myself at the table, and could just manage to be about with the aid of a pair of crutches. I could not get on and off street cars without the help of some other person. At last I decided to consult the United Doctors of South Bend, Ind., regarding my case. With the assistance of friends I succeeded in getting to their offices. The specialist in charge gave me a careful and thorough examination and told me I had a case of neuritis and could be cured.

On May 26th, 1912, I began my treatment with the United Doctors. My condition improved steadily until August 1st, 1912, at which time I discontinued the treatment and resumed my work. This was the first time I had been able to do any work since December 11th, 1911. My weight has increased until I now weigh 187-1/2 pounds. I eat and sleep well, suffer no pain whatever, in fact I never felt better in my life. I have never had any return of my trouble, and consider myself permanently cured.

All of my relations with the United Doctors, both professionally and in a business sense, have been of a most satisfactory nature, and I consider them to be not only men of exceptional ability, but men of true business worth and integrity. I have an absorbing interest in each individual case upon which they attend, and I shall never lose an opportunity of directing my friends to the source from which I obtained such remarkable and pleasing results.

J. M. WHORTON, the specialist, who is in charge of the South Bend Institute of United Doctors, is a man of high character, and his offices are located on the second floor of the Toeppe Building opposite the post office, between the hours of 9 and 12 a. m., 2 and 5 p. m., 7 and 8 p. m. Examination and consultation free.
